

Dangers of Diabetes
Thursday, July 10
2:00 p.m.

Certified diabetic instructor and clinical dietitian Brenda Pfizenmaier of the SEK Multi-County Health Department will talk about keeping yourself healthy and why it's so important. Whether for you, a friend or family member, she will discuss what you should know when it comes to diabetes. Diabetes is real! If you are informed, you can fight back and stay healthy.

Pinterest Party
Monday, July 16
6:00 p.m.

This month's project is a little different. We will be making a wind twirler whirligig. The class is limited to 25 people. Pre-registration and fee of $3 are required by July 13.

Care Decisions and Older Adults
Tuesday, July 17
7:00 p.m.

Presented by Kansas Advocates for Better Care. Learn about long-term care options, including at home, in assisted living, and nursing facilities. What can you afford? What are the benefits and problems with different types of care? What do recent inspection reports say about facilities in your area? What if you need more care later? Also, learn about issues affecting the quality of care available for older adults, including elder abuse or neglect. Do you suspect drugs are being used to sedate a loved one instead of providing the care needed? What can you do if you or a loved one is being abused, neglected or over-drugged?

Intrepid Readers Book Discussion
Thursday, August 2
2:00 p.m.

Educated, by Tara Westover. Born to Mormon fundamentalist parents living off-grid in the mountains of Idaho, the author of this memoir first set foot in a classroom at age 17. Today, with a PhD from Cambridge, she describes the grief of severed ties and her struggle for self-invention. In doing so, she gets at the heart of what education offers: the ability to see life with new eyes and the will to change it.

Paint Therapy Night
Monday, August 13
6:00 p.m.

Everyone needs some down time and fun—and what better way than with some paint therapy! Come join us on this evening to paint “wish flowers” step by step. Enjoy the company as you paint and chat. You will take home your artwork at the end of the evening. Beverages and light snacks will be provided. Pre-registration and fee of $10 are required by August 6. The class is limited to 24 people.

New Community Health Center
Tuesday, August 14
7:00 p.m.

With the doors just-opened on Iola's new clinic building for the Community Health Center, Southeast Kansas, Dr. Brian Wolfe, director, and some of his health-care pros are here to tell all about it and answer your questions. Learn about the new facility, the latest technology and improved health services.

Fall Sports Preview
Thursday, August 16
7:00 p.m.

What can Mustang fans expect this fall? Get an early glimpse as Iola High School coaches for football, volleyball, cross country, and perhaps other sports give you the inside scoop and answer your questions.

Pinterest Party

Adult Summer Reading Program
June 4-July 29

It's time again for the Adult Summer Reading Program! This year, the theme is "Libraries Rock!". Registration begins June 4 and the program runs through July 29. You are already reading all those fine books; why not get rewards for it? Come in and register. There will be eight weeks of books, puzzles, games, and fun. There will be a weekly drawing, and then a final drawing. You just might win some awesome prizes—and a surprise at the end for participating!

Fred Kipp of Piqua:
The Last Yankee Dodger
Monday, June 4
7:00 p.m.

Fred Kipp grew up at Piqua and went on to play professional and semi-pro baseball from 1950 to 1964. He is the last surviving person to play for both the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Yankees. He recently wrote a book about his experiences, The Last Yankee Dodger. He will tell about his career and sign copies of his book. Copies will be available to purchase at the program.

Palm Weaving
Tuesday, June 5
5:00 p.m.

Watch local artist Billy Ray Hayes demonstrate palm weaving while listening to stories of his travels. He learned the art of palm weaving in the Hawaiian Islands.

Intrepid Readers Book Discussion
Thursday, June 7
2:00 p.m.

Letters of Pliny the Younger. Writings of this famous Roman senator provide slice-of-life views of first-century Rome—the persecution of early Christians, ghost stories, family matters, house plans and history's only surviving eye-witness account of the catastrophic eruption of Vesuvius.

Dogs & Dads
(Moms welcome, too!)
Saturday, June 9
3:00 p.m.

In honor of Father's Day, grab your dad (and/or mom) and join us for hot dogs, games, crafts, and prizes. Pre-registration and fee of $3 are required by June 1. This program will be in the Flewharty -Powell Annex.

Tuesday Trivia
Tuesday, June 12
6:00 p.m.

Test your memory for songs and lyrics! Get a team together or play solo. You will need a smart phone, laptop or tablet to connect and play. If you do not have a device but still want to play, please let us know beforehand so we can have something set up for you to use. Let's have some fun and win some goodies! The program is free but registration is required. There is a limit of 30 people.

Rockin' the Sixties
Thursday, June 14
7:00 p.m.

L.C. Lacy, drummer for The Exciters, hottest dance band of southeast Kansas in the rockin' Sixties, recalls the tunes and times of those glory days. The Iola band packed dance floors weekly at the Iola Armory, Piqua Knights of Columbus Hall, Moran American Legion or elsewhere. Bandmates were Cliff Sperry, Jon Boyer and Louie Kinman.

Pinterest Party
Monday, June 18
6:00 p.m.

This month's project will put some sparkles into your flower garden with a garden sparkler. Class is limited to 25 people. Pre-registration and fee of $3 are required by June 15.

Tuesday Trivia!
Tuesday, June 26
6:00 p.m.

Test your memory for jingles, ads, commercials and more! Get a team together or play solo. You will need a smart phone, laptop or tablet to connect and play. If you do not have a device but still want to play, please let us know beforehand so we can have something set up for you to use. Let's have some fun and win some goodies! The program is free but registration is required. There is a limit of 30 people.

Help for Home Caregivers
Monday, July 2
2:00 p.m.

Volunteering for the AARP, Judy Davis-Cole, a retired nurse and home caregiver, explains the new Kansas Lay Caregivers Act effective July 1. It provides support for individuals who are designated as a caregiver for friend or loved one and need to learn how to give injections, dress wounds, help in the bathroom, handle meds and other prescribed needs.

Intrepid Readers Book Discussion
Thursday, July 5
2:00 p.m.

Readers discuss best books they've read lately and what's on their must-read lists. Group leader Colleen Dobbins recommends The Epic City: The World on the Streets of Calcutta by Kushanava Choudhury. Reared in New Jersey from age 12, the Princeton-educated journalist returns to his birthplace, Calcutta, city of 15 million people. Finding much unchanged, he presents a soulful, compelling portrait of everyday lives with humanity, wit and insight in a nice balance of history and memoir.
